You are having a blood test

compassionate care

Your doctor has sent you for a blood test

You will hand your form in at the reception desk.

You will be handed a ticket with a number on.

You will be asked to wait.
Someone you know can stay with you.

When your number comes up on the screen, it is your turn.

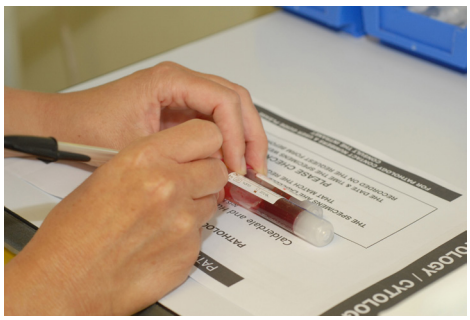

You will be asked for some information.

- your name
- where you live
- your birthday

The person will wash their hands.

	A band is put around your arm. You need to stay still. It will feel tight.
	Your arm will be cleaned and it will feel cold.
	A needle will be put into your arm. It will hurt a little bit. It sometimes helps to look away.
	The band will be taken off your arm and cotton wool dressing pressed on to stop the bleeding.
	A plaster is put on your arm. Keep this on for a few hours.
	The person will put your name on the bottle. This will be sent for testing.

Your results will go to your doctor.
